

accademia fisarmonicistica italiana
italian accordion academy

The 2010-2011 course, beside guiding the students through a process of developing and increasing technical and musical skills, aims to realize performing projects (concerts, cooperations, performances) which support the cooperation between musicians and other artists and encourages the carrying out of creative experiences.

The course consists in 7 meetings:

5 MASTER CLASS - from October 2010 - June 2011

- ☺ Solo repertoire (philological baroque interpretation, contemporary literature, transcriptions and non-academic music)
- ☺ The Alexander Technique (coordination, perception, tension-relaxation, breathing, stage aptitude, habits and reflexes, daily practice strategies, intention, direction, phrasing)
- ☺ Ergonomic use of the instrument (principles of support and use, ergonomic accordion straps®)
- ☺ Advanced accordion techniques (tone production, articulation and touch, dynamic intonation, sound planes, bellows techniques, new techniques in contemporary music)

2 WORKSHOPS AND PERFORMANCES (April/May/June 2011)

- ☺ Chamber music workshop and concert of new compositions, in cooperation with composers and instrumentalists ("Itinerari di ascolto Festival", Macerata, Italy / Ass. Arena Sferisterio - April 2010)
- ☺ Creative workshop for creating and presenting a multimedia performance in collaboration with artists, musicians, dancers (BV Goddess Fest, Amsterdam - May 2010)
- ☺ Final concert with solo and chamber works (Teatro Comunale in Cagli, Italy, June 2011)

The course has a limited number of participants.
